License - This application contains examined, statistical compensation data ("Data"). You are granted one personal, non-exclusive license to the Application and any final edition thereof for one User. This limited license allows the User to cite Data in documents created by the User during the course of business for internal use only.

The User is not authorized to assign or transfer this agreement without the prior written consent of CS.

Rights - The examined Data in this Application is confidential and proprietary information of CS. The Agreement does not surrender any proprietary or other ownership of the Data to the User. The User acknowledges CS owns the Data including all copyrights, patents, trade secrets and other proprietary rights herein.

CS will not be held liable in any event to the User or other party for any loss or damages of any kind, including damages for lost data or economic loss, even in the event CS has been notified of the possibility of such loss.

All warranties or guarantees given or made by CS with respect to the Application or Services (1) are for the benefit of the original Licensee of the Application only and are not transferable, and (2) shall be null and void if Licensee breaches any terms or conditions of this Agreement. CS is not responsible for the performance of services or products offered by third parties in connection with the marketing and distribution of the Application.

Term - The User will have access to Data for three years following the official release date of the survey results. CS reserves the right to terminate this Agreement in whole or in part upon written notice to the User if the User breaches any of the terms of this Agreement. In addition, at CS's sole discretion, if CS believes the Data is being used for a purpose not approved by CS, that CS's rights are being infringed upon, or the User is in violation of this Agreement, it may immediately terminate this Agreement.
